Landfill hangs on county decrees

The last of the hearings on the 30 acre HOD Landfill site expansion application, before the Lake County Regional Pollution Control Hearing Committee, ran past midnight on Monday, August 23.

At the meeting's end, despite the lengthy cross examining done by Robert Hauser, attorney representing the village, all that the residents of Antioch that were in the audience knew was that it seemed that Lane Kendig, director of the Lake County Dept. of Planning, Zoning and Environmental Quality, was going to stick to his guns saying the Lake County Board Staff Review Committee "saw no reason for the denial of Waste Management's application to the county."

But by early Tuesday, August 24, the staff review committee had sent a memorandum to the county board hearing committee, through the state's attorney's office, that said that staff's approval recommendation would hinge on the inclusion of the 42 conditions that that committee had set down for the protection of the county and the area's residents.

On Tuesday, Sept. 7, the hearing committee is now slated to consider all the testimony given by representatives of the village and of the disposal company, at the numerous Antioch hearings, as well as staff's recommendation for approval pending on the conditions' inclusion.

Hopefully, a recommendation by the committee will be made to the county board at the board's next meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 14.

A decision, either to approve or deny Waste Management's application, must be made by the county board by Sept. 25, or the disposal company will automatically receive application approval.

Charge Hartog for breaking his probation

by GLORIA DAVIS

Kenneth Hartog, 20, Trevor, was sentenced to spend 20 weekends in Lake County Jail after being found guilty of reckless homicide in the death of Anne Helene Kugler, 24. Judge William Block sentenced Hartog to spend this time under the substance abuse program on April 8, 1982.

Less than two weeks later, the Antioch Police reported that Hartog was in violation of his probation by being in the 911 Club in Antioch. A condition of Hartog's probation was that he was not allowed to frequent any establishment whose primary purpose was the sale of alcoholic beverages.

On April 25, 1982, Asst. States' Attorney Matt Chancey filed a petition to have Hartog's probation revoked.

Hartog admitted the petition last week and a date will be set for his sentencing in front of Block, sometime in September.

Hartog can receive the maximum penalty allowed for his offense, three years in prison and a $1,000 fine.

Hartog's truck struck and killed Kugler, early in the morning, as she was jogging on North Ave.

He had admitted to the police that he had been drinking and using drugs before the accident.

Automobile hits squad at crash scene

According to Antioch Police Chief Chuck Miller one of his squad cars was seriously damaged, and one of his officers taken to the hospital for emergency treatment, after the police car was hit broadside while responding to an accident call.

Officer Dennis Granfield was in the process of answering an accident call at the intersection of Rtes. 59 and 173, at 3:08 p.m. on Saturday, August 28. As he turned to get behind the accident, a car driven by Terrence Schroeder, 21, Chicago Ridge, ignoring Granfield's red light, sped through the intersection and hit the squad.

Schroeder was cited for failure to yield to an emergency vehicle at the scene.

Antioch's girth grows with new annexations

The area of the village of Antioch seems to be in an expansion pattern as the village board may pass an ordinance annexing the 82.5 acres of land in Little Silver Lake Subdivision belonging to Al and Jaqueline Little at the first board meeting in September.

Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz said the only thing holding up the Little annexation at the courthouse in Waukegan, is a map technicality concerning a legal finality in the annexation of the 134 acres belonging to R. C. Coil Co.

The board has already passed an annexation ordinance on the Coil acreage which will supply the contiguous alley needed to make the Little property part of the village.

Another 10 acres in the same area owned by Richard Burnett have been annexed and the board passed the ordinance annexing the Country House Restaurant, owned by Bob Koester, on July 15, adding not only to the village's area but also to its coffers, with an appreciable amount of sales tax revenue expected to be garnered from the successful restaurant.

Restaurant burglar strikes out third time

by GLORIA DAVIS

According to Antioch Police Lt. Tom Fisher, an 18-year-old Round Lake Beach man, Steven Sebestyn, is presently being held in Lake County Jail, after being charged with three counts of burglary and one count of possession of 10 grams of marijuana.

Sebestyn was apprehended on August 23, after the Antioch Police Dept. conducted an investigation into two burglaries of Thompson's Restaurant on Main St., Antioch. The first occurring sometime between closing time on Saturday, August 14, and reopening on Monday, August 16. The second one also happened while the restaurant was closed over the weekend of August 21 to 23.

According to Fisher, on the Monday that the second burglary was discovered, he installed a portable burglar alarm in the restaurant.

At 11:26 p.m. on that same day, the alarm went off. Two Antioch Police Officers approached the building, one taking the back and the other the front.

Officer George Broeker observed a suspect exit through the same window in the roof area that had been used to gain entrance in the previous burglaries. The suspect escaped by running over the roofs of Kings Drug Store, Barnstables and the Park Ave. Mall shops, doubling back and eluding the officers by jumping from the roof to the ground.

An hour later another businessman reported that a man was laying on the floor of a car parked in the parking lot. After being found in the car, it was also discovered that Sebestyn had putty on his hands, allegedly from the window that had been reupplied and tar from the roof. The shoes he wore matched the shoe prints taken by the police after all three robberies.

His bond has been set at $10,000 and he is presently awaiting a preliminary hearing.

Ask Dr. Sven
by Robert T. Sven B.S.D.D.S.

HEPATITIS

Question:
Is there a connection between dentists and hepatitis?

Answer:
Because dentists come in contact with blood they are at increased risk of contracting a type of hepatitis known as hepatitis B. This is especially true of oral surgeons, who are constantly in contact with blood.

Hepatitis is a serious enough infection as it is. Unfortunately, after the acute infection has passed, a certain number of victims become chronic carriers. This means that virus particles continue to circulate in their blood; although not ill, these persons have some potential to spread infection to others. However, since hepatitis B is spread mostly by contact with blood, risk of infection from a carrier is quite small.

Dentists who are hepatitis carriers can lower risk of infecting patients by wearing face masks and rubber gloves.

The Time Machine

When I think about it

Following the rules doesn't always pay

by GLORIA DAVIS

It never ceases to amaze me, all our modern progress notwithstanding, how many of the wise old sayings still apply.

You know the ones I mean like, "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," and Ben Franklin's trusty old, "An early bird gets tired."

On second thought there's probably just as many of those old adages that are down right lies and turn out to be just a collection of vowels and consonants.

Take for instance the one that avows, "You get what you pay for." Things being the way they are, many times those that do the paying don't end up on the receiving end and just keep paying and paying while others reap the harvest.

If you work hard you will get the salary your boss promised you, but there are those who choose to collect unemployment and make almost as much as they did when they were working by sitting at home, if traveling costs and other work-connected expenses are deducted.

The law and automobile insurance companies obviously have no respect for that sage saying. Witness the thousands of people who faithfully pay those outlandish insurance premiums only to be involved in an accident caused by one of the vast number of uninsured motorists that travel the highways.

This happened to my son twice inside of six months. His insurance company did pay for the damage to his car, after he paid the $200 deductible.

Then his premium headed skyward and his driving record at the motor vehicle department gained two black marks "because he was there."

The two people who had gotten away with not shelling out for insurance, owned nothing, so were allowed to pay the insurance company back at a very low monthly rate and retained their drivers' licenses as long as they did so.

That was several years ago and to date my son has never gotten the cash he paid for the deductibles and his premium has not gone down.

I guess the saying that applies in this case is, "A fool and his money are soon parted," or "Money doesn't buy happiness, nor does it assure fair insurance practices."

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Received a letter this week from the Anthony Stramoglia family, Franklin Park, that was a testimonial to the popularity of "Uncle Sunny," better known as Sal De Salvo, of Antioch.

It seems that when the Stramoglia sisters, Susan and Gina, had their wedding on August 7, "Uncle Sunny" held a picnic table umbrella over his nieces, the brides, so that the brides arrived in church beautiful and dry while one soaked uncle sat through the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl De Salvo and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frazier, also of Antioch, joined in the family's gratitude after the wedding.

Looks like our Antioch High School teachers are always trying to better our children's education. Laura Wilkens and Linda Zemba, home economics teachers, just attended the Illinois Home Economics Teachers' Assn.'s annual conference, which included seminars on clothing construction techniques, microwave techniques, child care and microcomputer programming.

For those of you who love to eat, a fun, though fattening, event to attend, is "A Taste of Dundee," to be presented by the Dundee Business Mens' Assn., at Fireman's Park, Farmer's Market Square, on Sept. 10, 11 and 12. Tickets are 50 cents. Call (312) 888-0737 for more information.

Isn't it funny how you can get to be a high school superintendent and not know the difference between a Lion and a Rotarian. Everyone knows they are vastly different in appearance, aren't they, Warren Polley?

Famed PM&Ler Tom Hausman did it for the second time at the Annual Fall Flower and Vegetable Show, in Waukegan, over the weekend, when he walked away with first prize for his Patrician Red Rose.

GOP ELECTS

The Lake County Young Republican organization elected officers for 1982-1983, at their August meeting. They are as follows: President Martin Kutzler of Waukegan, Vice President Jim Bucar of Antioch, Secretary Sheri Neal of Wadsworth, Correspondence Secretary Ray Vukovich of Waukegan, and Treasurer Veda Moretti of Highland Park. Anyone interested in the Lake County Young Republicans should call Martin Kutzler at (312) 662-0873 or Ray Vukovich at (312) 336-2520.

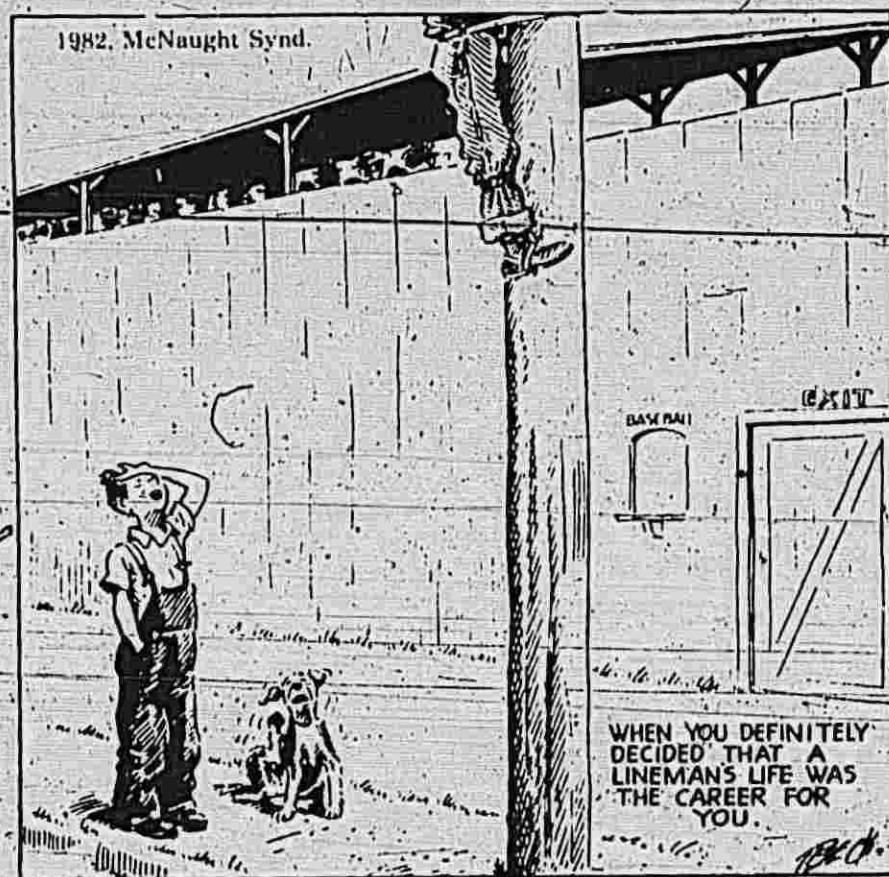

And if you're still hungry after that one, why not try the annual "Famous Chef Cuisine Benefit," sponsored by Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan, from 2 to 6 p.m., on Sunday, Sept. 26, at the Holiday Inn Illinois Beach Resort, Zion.

This "taste of" event will feature gourmet delights from many of Lake County's most famous restaurants. Tickets are $25 a person. Call (312) 662-2485 for more info.

A reminder to Antioch's businessmen, don't forget the seminar on merchandising, sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, slated to follow a luncheon at the Windjammer Restaurant, at noon, on Tuesday, August 31.

Bob and Ellen Swenson and brother George Swenson and Nancy Zitkus participated in the Special Olympic Summer Games at Illinois State University, Normal, winning a bronze medal for the softball throw and a blue ribbon for the 50-yard dash at the Pioneer Center, a community loving facility in Woodstock.

The Quality Meat Market got the award for the best commercial window in Antioch with its display of wax meat cuts.

Bert Ray, owner of Ray's Sinclair Gas Station, right in the center of Antioch, was raising sweet corn at his station with the intention of awarding the first ear to the first visitor he received after the corn was ripe.

The News reported that a census of the area showed that Antioch's population was expected to be higher this winter because so many Chicago summer residents were unemployed and they intended to remain in Antioch all winter.

TEN YEARS AGO: Sept. 6, 1972

A busing confrontation took place at Oakland Grade School when some parents raised loud objections to their children not being bused to school because they lived a mile and one-half past the busing limitation.

They put their children on the buses anyway and were compared to the revolutionary Abbe Hoffman for disobeying laws and using the same vile language Hoffman was famous for in a News editorial.

Lloyd Leable and Monte Barmaham, two local game wardens, snagged two would-be robbers in a high speed chase after coming across a suspicious car when checking game.

The Antioch Swimming Pool had heating facilities installed.

Pontoon dominates the Chain

The largest pontoon boat on the Chain-O-Lakes, docked at Steitz's Resort on Bluff Lake, made its maiden voyage on August 7 at noon.

The 73 by 14 foot craft, constructed of Wolmanized lumber and supported by 26, 275-gallon oil tanks, was powered by a 20 horsepower Johnson Outboard motor.

There were 67 people aboard to participate in the christening ceremony and free beer and champagne was provided.

The boat, named the MS-82 after its designers Larry Marchel and John Steitz, is both the ultimate in pontoon partying as well as an aircraft carrier!

Of particular interest is the sturdy support, safety railings and captains bridge which are completely removable to facilitate take offs and landings of an ultra-lite airplane.

The boat is owned by the P/F/U.F.U. Flying Club, Corp. which is planning to purchase the ultra-lite in the near future.

SEQUOITS DIVE INTO SEASON — Two Sequoits dive whole heartily into scrimmage at football camp. ACHS season officially opens on Saturday, Sept. 4, with kickoff program that starts at 9 a.m. with three Viking scrimmages. ACHS freshman will scrimmage at 10:30 a.m., sophs at 11:30 a.m. Program featuring cheer leaders, pom pom squad and color guard will be at 1 p.m. Varsity scrimmage will be at 2 p.m. — Photo by Forrest Muschewski

13 returnees could give Sequoits another winner

Antioch's Sequoit 11 have a very good chance of retaining last season's 7-2 record, with five offensive and eight defensive players returning from last year's team, that was second only to Warren in the Northwest Suburban Conference (NWSC).

These returning 13 lettermen will give Coach Steve Wapon a good building base from which to operate his two platoon system.

Returning on defense are linemen John Andre, 6-0, 201 pound tackle and Jerry Haling, 6-0, 170 pound end.

Coming back to their secondary positions are John Silianoff, 5-7, 143 pound back and Craig Sheedio, 5-11, 155 pound safety.

Four returning linebackers will fill some of the defense's key spots; Andy Lehn, 5-6, 172 pounds, Kevin Tuley, 5-9, 165 pounds, Jeff Kempfer, 5-11, 165 pounds and Bill Carney, 5-11, 187 pounds.

For the offense, top spots in the backfield will again be played by Derek Olsen, 6-1, 175 pound end, George Bessette, 5-9, 168 pound fullback and Tom Anderson, 6-0, 182 pound running back.

Tackles Chris Becker, 6-5, 196 pounds and Kevin Kovach, 6-2, 184 pounds, round out the familiar Sequoit look.

The question of who will fill the quarterback position this year has a senior pitted against a junior for that feature spot as Tom Adams, 6-2, 160 pounds, battles it out with John Humphreys, 6-0, 172 pounds.

Wapon is counting on these two whom he says have the strongest arms he has seen in his 15 years as Antioch's gridiron coach.

Fast ends and a good fullback promise capable receivers on the other end of the field said Wapon.

The coaches expect juniors Ed Silva and John Mahar, plus Bessette, to give the team the speed they lost when Mike Kotlinski graduated.

Anderson is expected to do okay in the punting department and Olsen will be a reliable kickoff and point after kicker.

Wapon still sees the NWSC Champs, Warren, as the team to beat this year, so with 65 out for the varsity team, 40 for the sophomore team and 76 frosh turning out, enthusiasm was high at the preseason football camp.

Ways to save energy, money

Everyone 'audit' have their home checked

by GLORIA DAVIS

If you are one of the millions of Americans who thought they were headed for debtors' prison when they received their heat bills last winter, the Illinois Energy Audit Assn. is offering a service that may keep you from seeing red, bankruptcy red that is.

For a mere $15, and inside of one and one half hours, any home owner can have an energy audit taken of their home that will show where heat is escaping from and tell what to do about it and the cost and savings involved.

Right now energy auditing is going on in the Antioch area. Beverly Rzyzsko, who lives off of Rte. 173 in the California Ice and Coal Subdivision, saw an article in the newspaper and called for her audit because her gas bills were "up as high as $180 in cold weather."

She lives in a five-room frame and brick veneer home that has a glassed-in "all-around room attached.

Two months after she made her request, a personable looking young energy auditor named Craig Harrison showed up at her door ready to show her how to save money on her utility bills.

The first and most important check was the one made to calculate her furnace's operating efficiency.

Harrison said, "This test alone is worth the $15."

The calking around her windows and doors was checked for leakage as were the attic and basement for proper insulation and ventilation.

Harrison explained that correctly fitting storm doors and windows and weather stripping were ways to stop any heat from escaping and cold air from entering the home.

The information that the energy auditor compiled after checking the Rzyzsko home

Letter To The Editor

HIT TAVERN'S IN POCKET
Editor:

Last night, I attended a citizens' group combating drunken driving in Illinois and Wisconsin. I listened to the prospective candidates for public office.

Each man gave the same old reasons why he should be elected. One candidate said, "after the drunk is caught, nail 'em to the cross!"

Later, the citizens were told they could ask questions. I told them the present method of control is obviously inadequate and in need of radical reform.

I proposed a helpful, but not a lucrative money making solution to the problem. I suggested a policeman stationed in the parking lot of random taverns and for each drunken citizen walking out of the tavern, the tavern keeper should lose his license.

The drunken citizen's life, the lives of other motorists would be saved by not allowing him in his car.

There were a few laughs and I sat down. I could have added, death is not funny, a beating in the jail is not funny, a grave is not funny and a broken heart is not funny.

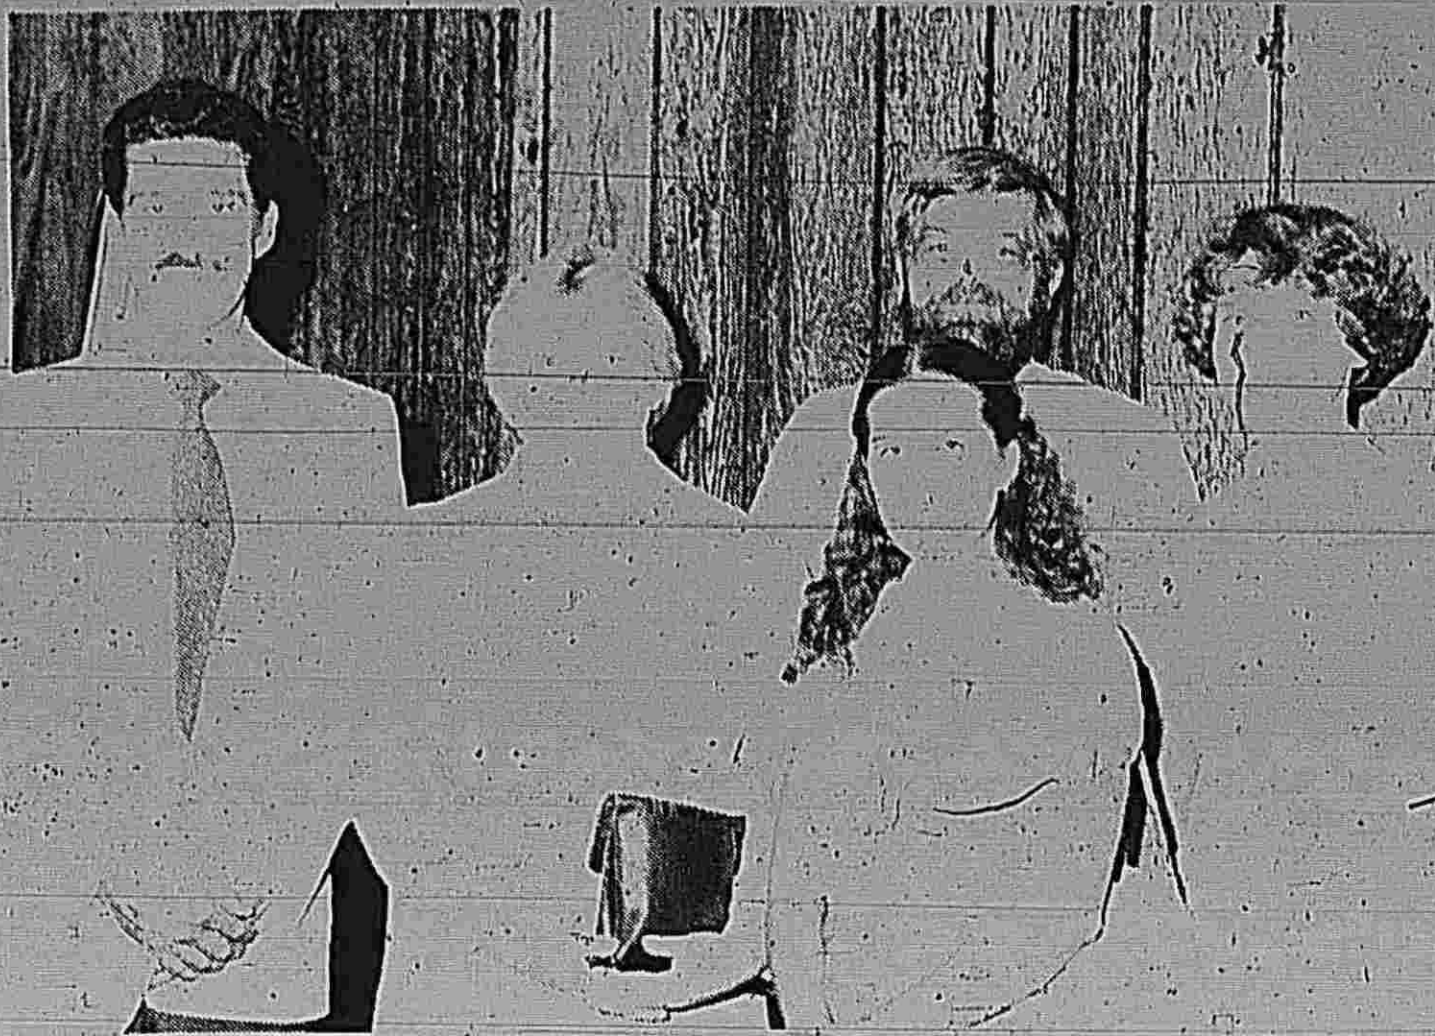

Without taverns, the policemen, lawyers and judges would all be out of a lot of big money. It takes a lot of concerned citizens to change rules — especially when those rules bring in big money to the political positions!

I say, tackle the problems at the beginning level of the taverns and alcohol. Let's cut out the money, the ruined lives and death.

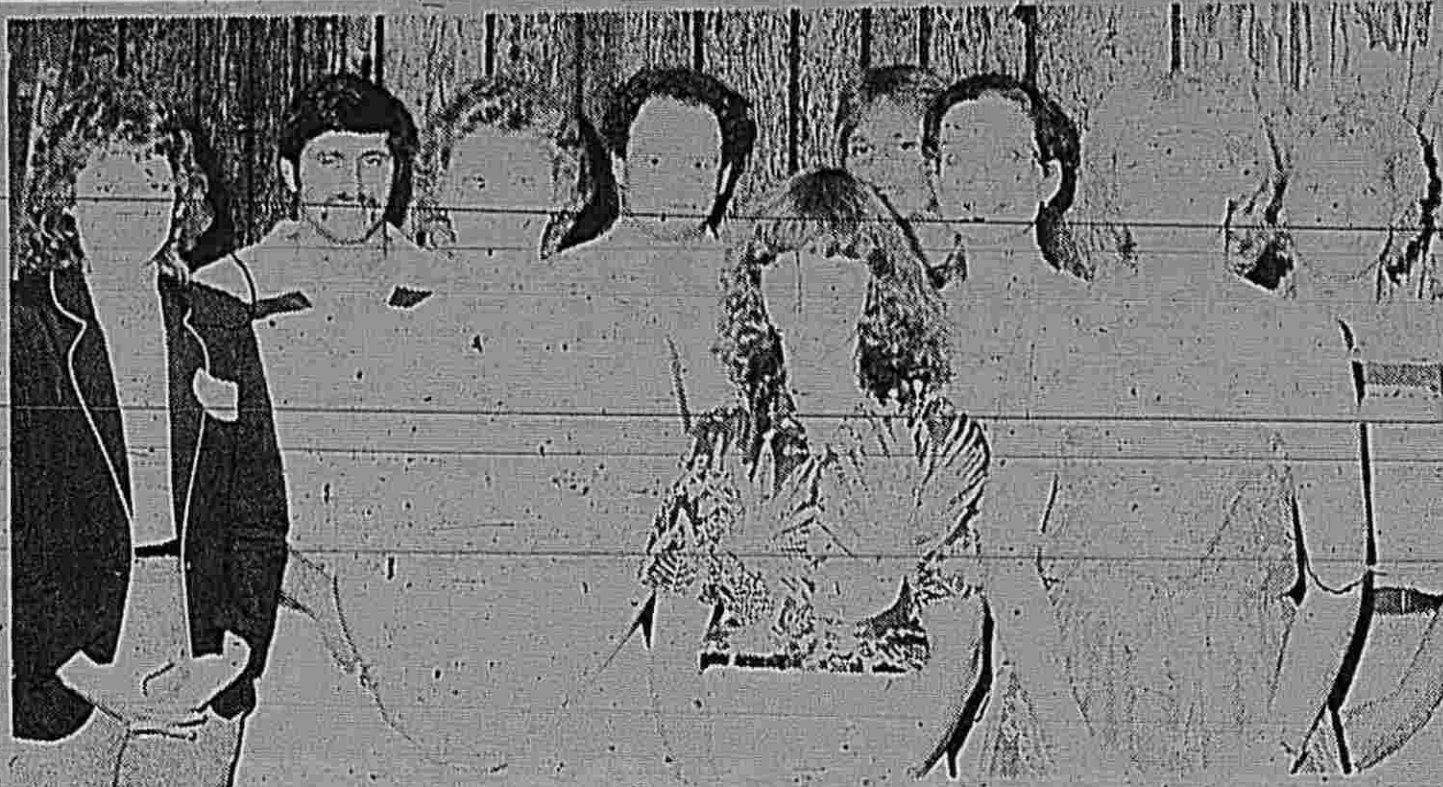

Let the punishment for drunken driving be a weekly visit to the morgue, 12 visits to alcoholics anonymous and some free labor for the community. Also they should help out for a month in a hospital mental ward.

Wake up citizens! This is your world, your life and the lives of your children we are talking about. Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the cause.

Edgar to address county GOP

Sec. of State Jim Edgar will address the Lake County Republican Federation at its annual membership meeting, at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 11, at Brae Loch Country Club, Rte. 45 north of Rte. 120, Grayslake. Federation President William E. Brook of Antioch said Edgar will meet informally with the audience following his speech. Edgar served two terms as state representative from the 53rd District before his appointment to Secretary of State by Gov. Jim Thompson in 1980. He is the GOP candidate for that office in November election.

Historical society eyes reroofing of old school

by GLORIA DAVIS

The Lakes Region Historical Society is busy working on the restoration of the old Antioch Grade School building, turning it into an area historical museum, and they are starting at the top.

During a brief business meeting, held at the beginning of the group's regular meeting, on Thursday, August 26, there was a discussion on bids received for the replacement of the entire roof of the school, including some rotted timbers.

According to Sue Glenn, the society's secretary, the bids range from $12,000 to $18,000. The group hopefully expects to spend about $15,000 on that part of the project.

It was decided, however, that it was necessary to get confirmation of the leasing of the building from the village of Antioch, before going any further with the plans. William Brook was assigned that task.

The 40 people that attended then enjoyed a program on quilts put on by "The Quilt Lady," Jean Haake-Lindhurst.

Six other people brought hand-made quilts to display. The next meeting of the historical society will be on Thursday, Sept. 23.

Energy audit

would be fed into a main computer in Seattle, Wash.

The computer would return an analysis of the situation, recommend corrective measures and report the approximate cost of making them.

This cost analysis would be made on the basis of having the work done and of doing it yourself.

It will also tell the home owner how much would be saved at the end of one year by taking these corrective measures and also how many years it will take to get back the money invested.

Solar and wind energy systems can also be analyzed by using the same auditing system.

As an extra bonus, anyone having an energy audit will receive an informational package containing energy saving suggestions from the Illinois Dept. of Natural Resources.

Reiter graduates

Jeffrey J. Reiter of The First National Bank of Antioch recently graduated from the lending school, sponsored by the Commercial Lending Division of the American Bankers Assn. (ABA). The two-week session was held at the Oklahoma Center for Continuing Education at the University of Oklahoma, Norman.

Included in the curriculum at the school were the "how" and "why" of commercial lending, with emphasis on the practical application of financial analysis, cash flow, loan review and profitability. In addition to attending lectures, the class divided into small groups for a wide range of specialized lending case studies.

The commencement address at Reiter's graduation exercise was delivered by Richard G. Kelly, chairman of the board, Citizen's First National Bank of New Jersey, Glenrock, N.J. and member, National Commercial Lending Schools Board of Regents.

The ABA is the national trade association for America's Full-Service Banks. More than 90 percent of the country's 14,500 commercial banks are members, including more small banks than any other trade association.

As the leading educator of America's bankers, the ABA continually develops and revises textbooks, seminars, compliance manuals, statistical reports and brochures on a wide range of banking topics.

Moose Women plan September workshops

The Antioch Chapter of the Women of the Moose met on the first and third Thursday in August with the membership committee and Chairman Corrine Skrlac serving as hostess. During the meeting a canned good pricing game was played by the co-workers and Louise Stenberg was the winner.

Three new candidates were enrolled at the first meeting. They were Diana Berkholtz, sponsored by June Ballanger, Katherine Franczyk, sponsored by Lura Lampeitl and Viola Selzer, sponsored by Marie Bobo.

Mae Prazak was chosen "Co-worker of the Month" for the month of September. A new co-worker will be chosen by a committee named by Senior Regent Marjorie Hansen for the month of October and will be named at the business meeting in September.

The membership committee served delicious refreshments after the August meetings. The publicity and hospital committees are busy with workshops every other Monday evening at the lodge, in preparation for the Christmas Bazaar, to be held Nov. 19 and 26, during "Fish-Fry Time."

The next workshops are to be held on Sept. 13 and 27, at 7:30 p.m.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

Dr. R. A. Sona,

OPTOMETRIST

SEEING AND LEARNING

Vision is never more important than in the first 12 years of a child's life. According to the experts, about 80 percent of all learning in those years is accomplished through seeing. The child has to be able to see well to study the world and him, to read, and to protect himself.

How can you tell if your child has a problem with his vision? Does he tilt his head to one side when looking at someone or something? Maybe he is seeing better with one eye than the other. Does he put his head close to a book when he's reading? This may be a sign of nearsightedness.

Have you noticed him blinking often, or rubbing his eyes? Does he complain of headaches? These are telltale signs that he may be having problems with his vision. The only way to know for sure is to call your eye doctor for an appointment.

A good eye examination is thorough, and it's painless. If there is a vision problem, it can usually be corrected with proper eyeglasses or contact lenses.
